MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

Judge Thomas F. Graham of New York thinks there should be more divorces. He says that at present divorces are too hard to get.

Judging by the divorce records of Nevada and Washington, one would almost be led to think that Judge Graham is hard to satisfy.

This kind of talk is vicious and demoralizing.

Divorce laws are essential. There are cases where to force a continuance of marriage is criminal. But to advocate a wholesale dissolution of marriage is the more ground of incompatability is to seriously threaten the family.
